Upcoming Events

- Part-Time Faculty Symposium: workshop idea: strategies for integrating part-time faculty with full-time department members.
- The All Committee Day: scheduled on February 24th. Theme: Gratitude. Focusing on positivity, accomplishments, and how to build bridges with other stakeholders and find commonalities. Maybe implement self-care and unconventional activities to do during the day.
- A&P Conference: The theme of "How can we accomplish things together"
  - Interest-based bargaining (IBB), a less competitive approach to policy bargaining, was proposed by Jason. Jeffrey Michels to be invited to create a panel at A&P

Potential webinars

- Explaining technical language and showing the impact of policies on people was proposed for policy sessions.
- Maria expressed interest in attending policy committee meetings, and the possibilities of providing policy-making's historical context were discussed.

Feedback and Conclusion

- Maria was assigned to bring the discussed details to the A&P planning committee.
- The next Professional Development Committee meeting was scheduled for October 19.
