FACCC RESPONDS TO RESIGNATION OF ELOY OAKLEY

SACRAMENTO, Calif. – The Faculty Association of California Community Colleges (FACCC) has issued the following statement on the resignation of California Community College Chancellor Eloy Oakley:

“We wish Chancellor Oakley the best in his future endeavors. While we have not always agreed with the Chancellor on certain policy matters, his legacy of bringing equity to the forefront of every community college policy discussion should be celebrated and continued. We wish him all the best in his new position at the College Futures Foundation.

We believe the next Chancellor will have an opportunity to re-engage faculty and other practitioners to ensure state regulations and policy support educators so we can better support students. Regardless of who is selected for an interim or permanent role, FACCC will continue to advocate for our faculty, students, and the mission of the California Community College system.
