

Academic Credit for Participation

Participants in the Great Teachers Seminar may register for two (2) units of credit. The course is offered through California State University, Sacramento Regional and Continuing Education. Registering in the course is optional and is an additional cost. Registration will take place at the seminar (checks are preferred). If you would like additional information, please contact Silvia Farias, Program Director at sfarias@facc.org.

