

FACCC PAC ENDORSEMENT CRITERIA

Updated January 2009

The FACCC PAC shall consider these questions when endorsing candidates for political office:

1. Is the candidate viable?
2. Is the candidate a member of FACCC?
3. Is/was the candidate an instructor in the California Community College system?
4. What is the candidate's record of support for community college faculty?
5. What is the candidate's record of support for community colleges?
6. What is the candidate's record of support for public education?
7. What is the candidate's knowledge of issues pertaining to California Community Colleges?
8. How accessible and responsive will the candidate be to duly authorized FACCC representatives and/or local faculty leaders?
9. On which committees does the candidate want to serve?
10. What are the ramifications of an endorsement or non-endorsement?
11. What is the candidate's leadership potential?

What local faculty input has FACCC PAC received about the candidate?
