

FACTORING TAX DEDUCTIBILITY OF FACCC DUES
Applies to all FACCC members except for those whose dues are automatically deducted at the 10 colleges below.

The Faculty Association of California Community Colleges is a California nonprofit corporation governed under Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code. Up to 80% of FACCC dues (minus 10% of FACCC PAC contributions) may be deductible as a business expense. Consult your tax advisor or financial professional for guidance.

FACTORING TAX DEDUCTIBILITY OF CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE FACCC EDUCATION INSTITUTE
Applies to faculty at Santa Monica College, Foothill College, De Anza College, Santa Barbara City College, Santa Rosa Junior College, Contra Costa College, Los Medanos College, and Diablo Valley College

The Faculty Association of California Community Colleges Education Institute is a California nonprofit corporation governed under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Faculty members at these eight colleges may deduct their individual contributions to the FACCC Education Institute as a charitable donation. Consult your tax advisor or financial professional for guidance.

Applies to faculty at Chabot and Las Positas Colleges

Contributions to the FACCC Education Institute began in September although it is critical that you examine your paycheck to determine the exact date. Those who were previously members of FACCC may also apply the rules applicable to a 501(c)(6) for the period in 2017 before contributions to the Education Institute began. Consult your tax advisor or financial professional for guidance.
