

FACCC Communications Committee
Wednesday 9.28.22

Notes

- Attendees included Ryan Tripp, Dave Balch, Elizabeth Norvell, Amy Leonard • Absent were Troy Myers, Meryl Siegal, Kristin Lassonde, Stephanie Goldman, Ashley Hamilton
- Staff member, Herlim Li, attended in place of Stephanie Goldman

Topics of Discussion

- Ryan Tripp announced the need for a volunteer liaison for the Friday 10/28/22 Hybrid Board Meeting
 1. Upon discussion, only Ryan was available at the time of the board meeting
 2. Ryan volunteered to attend pending confirmation that his attendance at the board meeting did not create a conflict of interest due to his position as Chair of the Communications Committee
- Ryan Tripp announced the need for a volunteer for Mission Met – Goals Tracking software training
 1. Amy Leonard volunteered to attend the training on behalf of the Communications Committee
- Ryan Tripp reminded the committee to complete and submit their Conflict of Interest forms at earliest convenience
- Discussion took place regarding a Regional Governor-at-Large request made on 8/27/22 that the Communications Committee publicly post the following:
 1. Seasonal issue deadlines for FACCCTS
 2. FACCCTS article submission procedures and word count medians
 3. Criteria for acceptance of FACCCTS articlesCommittee members generally agreed with the idea of posting this information on the Communications Committee website and unanimously agreed to consult with Stephanie about it.
- Discussion of upcoming FACCC communications:
 - Spring 2023 FACCCTS
 - Theme: Post-COVID Enrollment, In-person versus online and hybrid courses, and/or online “Bots”

- Articles proposed:

- Ryan Trip: Rise and Fall and Rise of CalBright
- Dave Balch: Student Enrollment, In Person and Online
- Amy Leonard: In-Person versus Online /Hybrid
- Amy Leonard: Online Class “Bots” Interviews
- FACCC Blog articles proposed:
 - Amy Leonard: Anti-Racist Grading Practices
 - Amy Leonard: “Bots” Interviews
- FACCC Podcast Amplifying Voices – Episode 3 – Interview with LACCD Board Trustee Candidate, Kelsey lino
 - Scheduled for September 28th after the Communications Committee meeting
 - Amy Leonard volunteered to post-produce the podcast
 - Herlim volunteered to assist Amy with post-production
 - Looking forward to Episode 4: Post-elections follow-up with Evan Hawkins and PAC Chair (early December or late January; Ryan to email episode proposal to the committee and determine scheduling