

Part-Time Faculty Committee

Tuesday, August 11, 2020
12:00 –1:15 pm

Notes by Lidia and Sally

Attendees: Sally Saenger, David Milroy, Raymond Brennan, Deirdre Frontczak, Laurel Hartley

Absent: Nicole Miller, Julie Caspersen Schultz, Dana DeMercurio, Terry Patten Armbrust

Staff: Lidia Stoian

Committee Member Training/Review of Responsibilities

Sally/Staff

- General expectations
- Minimum meeting attendance requirements.
- Notes taker - Sally suggested Lidia as note-taker so members can be fully involved in discussion. Lidia will send notes to Sally for review before sending.

1. PTF Symposium 11/6-11/7 - Our Main Charge

All

- CPFA will partner with FACCC on the symposium. To be a co-sponsor for the event CPFA will commit to bringing speakers, promoting the event, helping with workshops. Deirdre will ask the executive committee about listing CPFA as co-sponsor on the flyer for the symposium.
- Time frame for Friday was changed to begin at 1:00 pm.
- Introduce a poll activity at the beginning to make attendees feel welcomed and involved
- Symposium theme ideas:
  - "Good Trouble"
- Keynote ideas:
  - Senator Roth- Ray will connect with David Balla-Hawkins to connect with the senator
  - Jeff Michels
  - Not limited to PT faculty: Consider a full-time faculty that's an ally
  - Reach out to the entire committee to ask for additional suggestions
  - We are not limited by geography: think creatively!
- Panel ideas:

- Different voices/topics represented on the panel: expert panel and/or faculty panel (CalSTRS, EDD person, John Govsky, attorney, etc.)
- Possible concurrent sessions/panelists' focus: legislative efforts; edu union collective action; Covid consequences; Part-time life in the wake of COVID-19?
- Should the experts be the panelists? Or, we could have the experts one day and faculty advocates the next.
- Breakout rooms with panelist and/or different topics

2. Next Meeting

All

- Discussion on having a standing meeting day
- Next meeting: Tuesday, August 25th at 1:00 pm