I. Welcome/Check-In

II. Policy Forum Update
- John & Cynthia met w/ David Milroy, picked 2/3/23 for the (Virtual) Policy Forum date. (Potential) Topic – critiquing 2-tier system/one faculty. Keep people focus on strategizing to impact/change the system.
  - o Waiting to see what ideas come out of Part-time Symposium on 12/9/22 (2-5 pm) – "Time for Systemic Change"

III. Academic Freedom Update – is there a hard deadline?
- Deirdre to talk to the Communications Committee to work on a statement re: Academic Freedom.

IV. A & P Conference Proposal
- "Educational Philanthropists: Who they are, what they want, and how they are a threat to faculty, students and democracy."
  In recent years, the power of the educational philanthropists to shape legislation and community college policy has grown. However, not much is known about these organizations and their ultimate goals for community colleges. This breakout session is a panel discussion exploring their identity and purpose, how their agenda conflicts with faculty interests, their legislative and policy impact, and strategies we can employ to resist their agenda. Possible panelists:

- o Wendy Brill-Wynkoop, FACCC President
- o Debbie Klein, Gavilan College
- o ?Terry Mulcaire, Santa Rosa or ?Sean Martin, Santa Rosa
- o ?Natalina Montiero, ELAC

V. Policy Papers
