

+

○

Womyn's Leadership Network

Julie Bruno, Communications Studies Professor,
Sierra College

Rebecca Eikey, Chemistry Professor, College of the Canyons

Wendy Brill-Wynkoop, Photography Professor,
College of the Canyons and President-Elect FACCC

Who is your shero? Why?

Go to www.menti.com and use the code 5975 5409

ASCCC Womyn's Caucus Vision

- To foster culture shift within the California Community Colleges that embraces and encourages womyn to actualize their leadership potential.
- To provide racially-conscious network of support that centers the voices of diverse womyn and nurtures their leadership development.
- To provide formal and informal mentoring to new and potential womyn leaders who will then serve as role models to colleagues and students.

-
- +
    -
    - Provide one word on your vision of womyn's leadership.

Small Group Discussion

- What skills are necessary to be an effective womyn's leader?
- How can we help womyn develop those skills?
- What strategies would empower diverse womyn in our community colleges?
- What supports are needed for womyn's leadership?
- What are systemic barriers to womyn's leadership?

Opportunities to Engage

