

Sacramento has a growing impact on your classrooms.

What impact are you having in Sacramento?

FACCC Contract Membership

Community college faculty unions across the state have joined forces with FACCC to enhance their state-level advocacy. By signing a simple and specifically tailored agreement in which all union members join FACCC individually through payroll deduction, the union receives numerous benefits that advance its goals for both its members and the students they serve.

Summary of Benefits

Representation	Guaranteed seat on the FACCC Board.  Individualized analysis on how new state regulations and policies impact your union and district.
Advocacy	Organization of advocacy visits with your legislators.  Your union members join the thousands of faculty represented by FACCC in the state capital, which strengthens the overall faculty voice.  All members receive weekly communications on news and updates from Sacramento.
Political Power	Prioritization in FACCC PAC's political agenda, including campaign support for union endorsed trustee candidates.  Mutually agreed upon research that strengthens your union's power and leverage at the bargaining table.
Professional Development	Discounted rates to some of FACCC's professional development events, including the acclaimed Great Teachers Seminar.  Annual advocacy trainings at union executive board meetings.  One annual professional development event organized by FACCC and held at a college in the district.

Since 1953, FACCC has provided focused representation for community college faculty to promote funding, academic freedom, and retirement benefits. With members across every campus in California, FACCC continues to strengthen the position of faculty in the State Capitol, the State Chancellor's Office, and the State Teachers' Retirement System.
