FACCC Announces New Staff Appointments: Jason Henderson Named Government Relations Specialist and Mikala Hutchinson Joins as Membership and External Affairs Specialist

SACRAMENTO, Calif. – The Faculty Association of California Community Colleges (FACCC) is pleased to announce the addition of two new staff members, Jason Henderson and Mikala Hutchinson, who both joined the organization on January 5.

Jason Henderson is serving as FACCC's new Government Relations Specialist. Jason brings a strong background in education advocacy and a deep commitment to addressing systemic inequities in public education. A graduate of California State University, Long Beach, he has worked extensively to advance policies that support students, educators, and communities across California. In his new role, Jason will support FACCC's legislative and budget advocacy efforts, working to elevate faculty voices and strengthen California's community colleges.

FACCC is also pleased to welcome Mikala Hutchinson as the Membership and External Affairs Specialist. Mikala will support FACCC's membership engagement, outreach, and external communications, helping to strengthen connections with faculty leaders, partners, and stakeholders throughout the system.

FACCC looks forward to the contributions Jason Henderson and Mikala Hutchinson will bring as the organization continues its advocacy, policy, and membership work in the year ahead.
