WHITTIER, CA-Longtime Assembly District 57 community activist and Democratic nominee Lisa Calderon announced receiving a key education community endorsement for her campaign for State Assembly. The Faculty Association of California Community Colleges threw their support behind Calderon this past weekend.

"FACCC is proud to endorse Lisa Calderon for Assembly. As a community college graduate, Lisa understands that our colleges and the faculty who educate the over two million students in the system are critical to California's resiliency and economic recovery." Evan Hawkins, Executive Director, Faculty Association of California Community Colleges.

"I am grateful that FACCC believe I'm the candidate best equipped for the 57th Assembly District."

Calderon is the daughter of farm workers, the first in her family to go to college, and a former legislative aide who went on to have a successful business career. Lisa has a record of advocating for the advancement of issues and people who the system is leaving behind. Fiercely independent, she is a champion for equality, fairness and opportunity.

She is running to represent Assembly District 57, which is located in LA County and includes the communities of La Mirada, Hacienda Heights, Industry, La Puente, Norwalk, Santa Fe Springs, South El Monte, and Whittier.
